One step toward making Baton Rouge America's next great city!

NWWTP Buffer Area and Vegetative Plantings Project: LAND ACQUISITION INFORMATION

- Visual buffer
- Pushes odors upward, above the neighborhood
- Absorb odors in the air
- Create buffer zone between plant and residents
- ~ $7M budget including: appraisals, acquisitions, relocations, asbestos remediation, demolition, and buffer design and construction

Acquisitions

- 79% of acquisitions were amicable
- 60 properties acquired
  - 19 vacant lots
  - 5 vacant houses

Relocations

- 2 appraisals of each property
- 36 relocations of property owners and renters
- 4 relocation agents utilized, all of which were:
  - Woman-owned
  - Small business
  - Minority

- 79% of acquisitions were amicable
- 60 properties acquired
  - 19 vacant lots
  - 5 vacant houses

- 2 appraisals of each property
- 36 relocations of property owners and renters
- 4 relocation agents utilized, all of which were:
  - Woman-owned
  - Small business
  - Minority

- 79% of acquisitions were amicable
- 60 properties acquired
  - 19 vacant lots
  - 5 vacant houses

- 2 appraisals of each property
- 36 relocations of property owners and renters
- 4 relocation agents utilized, all of which were:
  - Woman-owned
  - Small business
  - Minority